THE LICENCE

Positive Purchasing Limited (which reference includes its successors and assigns) hereby grants to the Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to Use the Software on the Equipment only for the maximum number of and identified individual Permitted Users upon the terms and subject to the conditions contained in this licence.

Permitted Users must be identified to Positive Purchasing Limited so that they may be issued their own unique login and security access information before making use of the Software. Login and security details may not be shared with or transferred to any other person.

In the event that a particular Permitted User ceases to have the Licensee's permission to Use the Software (for example if the Permitted User ceases to be an employee or worker of the Licensee) the Licensee must notify Positive Purchasing Limited immediately and may nominate a replacement Permitted User for that individual, who will be issued their own login and security details by Positive Purchasing Limited. No person other than a Permitted User identified to the Licensor is permitted to use the Software or any of the materials comprised within it. Any unauthorised Use of the Software by or permitted by the Licensee is deemed to be a material breach for the purposes of this Licence.

Due to the administrative costs and time involved in setting up a new Permitted User account, no refund of any of the Annual Licence Fee or Additional User Fee will be made by Positive Purchasing Limited in the event that the licensee wishes to reduce the number of Permitted Users.

Where the Licensee wishes, after the commencement of the licence of the Software, to increase the number of Permitted Users, it will be required to pay the then applicable Additional User Fee for each additional user that it wishes to operate on the Software.

Downloadable content including but not limited to Workbooks, Quick Reference Guides, Tools, Templates, forms and other materials comprised in the Software may be downloaded, saved on the Equipment only, and hard-copied by the Permitted User in the course of the Permitted User's employment or engagement with the Licensee and solely for the internal business purposes of the Licensee.

It is the intention that the materials comprised in the Software are to be available for the information and benefit of the Permitted User to assist that individual in the carrying out of his or her duties, and not for distribution as templates or guides to other employees workers or agents of the Licensee. For the avoidance of doubt Use does not include any sale or other distribution to any subsidiary or other group company of the Licensee or any other third party and does not include the distribution of unworked or non-completed materials from the Software to other employees workers or agents of the Licensee and may not otherwise be copied or distributed save that completed materials may be circulated within the Licensee in accordance with the evident purpose of such materials.

If the Licensee requires more than one individual to work on or otherwise utilise any of the materials comprised within the Software, the Licensee will need to acquire a licence for more than one Permitted User.

In exercising this right the Permitted User may not alter the pre-populated content of Positive Purchasing Limited or remove or obscure any copyright notices or trade marks of Positive Purchasing Limited.

Where the Software is issued by Positive Purchasing Limited in any media for installation or back-up purposes, only one copy may be installed at any time on any equipment of the Licensee.

Unless otherwise confirmed by Positive Purchasing Limited to the Licensee in writing, Concurrent Use of the Software is not permitted by this licence.

The licence will, unless earlier terminated as provided in this licence, continue for an initial period of one year from the date of payment of the first Annual Licence Fee or (if earlier) the date of first Use of the Software by the Licensee and will, subject to payment of the Annual Licence Fees, continue thereafter from year to year unless so terminated.

- (b) the Additional User Fees for each Permitted User in excess of one in advance within 7 days of the request for an additional user being accepted by Positive Purchasing Limited and in any event prior to such Permitted User being permitted to Use the Software.

Failure to pay all Annual Licence Fees and all Additional User Fees in full within 7 days of their due dates will result in the Licensee not being licensed to Use the Software and is deemed a material breach for the purposes of this licence.

The Annual Licence Fee may be subject to annual review by Positive Purchasing Limited upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written (which may be by email) notice to the Licensee before the commencement of the next year of the term of the licence. Such reviewed Annual Licence Fee will take effect on the commencement of the next year of the term of the licence unless the Licensee has notified Positive Purchasing Limited in writing (which may be by email) prior to such commencement date that it wishes to terminate this Licence.

Termination of this licence part-way through any year of the term of this licence will not entitle the Licensee to any refund of the Annual Licence Fee paid for that year.

All charges referred to in this licence are exclusive of and net of any taxes, duties or such other additional sums including (without prejudice to the generality of this provision) value added tax, excise tax, import or other duties, and whether levied in respect of this Licence, the Software, its use or otherwise and the Licensee will be liable to pay all such sums.
